Lo-fi spooky folk, minor-chord melodrama and haunting lyrics echoing Will Oldham, Damien Jurado and Nick Drake 15 MP3 Songs FOLK: Modern Folk, ROCK: Acoustic Details: I have recorded all the albums at home on 4-track recorders and my laptop - all the instruments are played by myself mostly, except for a few tracks where I've enlisted a few of my bass-playing friends. I live and work in the Edinburgh area and have played a number of gigs in and around Edinburgh and Perthshire. My influences include Nick Drake , Whipping boy, Tim + Jeff Buckley, Nick Cave, U2, Neu, Townes Van Zandt, Tom Waits, Pink Floyd, Bonny Prince Billy, Devendra Banhart, Bill Fay, the Stooges, early Marillion and Simple Minds, Talk Talk, Interpol, Laura Veirs, Smog, Joanna Newsom, The Velvet Underground, Damien Jurado, Neil Young , The Tindersticks and the Fall. I played in a band called White Noise for about 4 years but have gone solo for the past 8 years, during which time I have recorded 14 albums under the pseudonym of Rhubarb - during that time I have covered a wide range of material from lo-fi spooky folk to folktronica, Sonic Youth / Stooges -esque rock, and even the odd splash of prog-rock - as far as I'm concerned no genre is out of bounds and I just go with the flow.
