She combines folk, soul, blues and a jazz edge in her vocals, writing and treatment of her songs recorded in 1995, 'Direct to disc' in St. Peters Cathedral, NY. 13 MP3 Songs FOLK: Folk Blues, BLUES: Acoustic Blues Details: "Sara K. can deliver a song with smoky soul. This is the jazz chanteuse's third album with Chesky Records - the 'high-res' wizards of the music biz...She wrote most of the songs on the record, with the exception of Greg Allman's 'Whipping Post,' which she beats into a buttery gem with sultry vocals and a classy arrangement." - Yoga Journal, June 1996 "Sara K's third for Freres Chesky is a pisser...raunchy-driven crowd-rouser... Tell Me I'm Not Dreamin' is Sara K's best work to date,...There's not a dud on the disc...the Chesky sound mates well with this disc, and the overall result is a wonderful way to end the day." - Alan Taffel, Audio Adventure, June 1996 "Dallas native Sara K. has the type of voice that can effortlessly be described. Her angelic range is as impressive as her third release for the Chesky Records label, Tell Me I'm Not Dreamin'. Influenced by an uncommon list of performers from the Temptations to Joni Mitchell, Sara has delivered eleven original compositions and two covers, Don McLean's 'Vincent' and a version of Greg Allman's 'Whipping Post,' that are a gorgeous presentation of her ability." - The Friday Morning Quarterback, November 17, 1995 "...wonderful vocals, sparse backings and enough atmosphere to justify a film of the album. But the real kickers are two cover versions, a chilling take of Don McLean's 'Vincent' and an unplugged performance of the Allman Brothers' raunchy-driven crowd-rouser, 'Whipping Post'." - Hi-Fi News Record Review, June 1996
