

Mp3 S/he-dy - Artist Of The Year

DOWNLOAD HERE

Real lyrics, Real stories. This debut project offers something for everyone. Street Bangers, Hot Dance Tracks, Thought provoking stories and much more. Cop It... Guaranteed To Love It 14 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Rap Details: Sixth grade, 1993, S/he-dy picked up the mic for the very first time. From recording on tape recorders to Pro-tools studios, from entertaining at local shows, to the Apollo Theatre, S/he-dy's eagerness as a teen female rapper molded her into the up and coming star she is today. In 1999 S/he-dy landed her first record deal with Independent label Synegee Records. During her years with the label she has made several accomplishments. Her fall 2001 single S.T.O.P reached the #2 spot on several college radio stations. In response Impact Magazine named S/he-dy "The female rapper to watch out for". S/he-dy has also been on the scene with such shows as: Black Expo 2000 where she opened the stage for female rap artist Sole' Club Lebar bat 2000 opened for veteran R&B artist Brian Mcknight Black Expo 2001 she set off the show for sensations Jaheim, Coffee Brown, Ray.J, and Tank Additional showcases included WBLS Harlem Week stage, and other Black Expo's out of state After the labels fold in 2002 S/he-dy bounced back and continued to pave her way. Her first solo accomplishment was as a featured artist in the fall 2002 issue of Honey Magazine. Additionally S/he-dy appeared on VH1 where she undeniably made her way through every round on their reality M.C. Battle show. Performances at Club Demararas, BMI/EARS showcases and several other local spots ranging from New York City to New Jersey. S till hitting the studio hard, 2004 S/he-dy completed her Debut album "Artist Of The Year". "I believe this album will not only be a success on the underground circuit, but it will bring a fresh new female style and sound to the game as a whole" says S/he-dy. "I wont stop until millions plus know the name". With the album hitting the streets mid-August 2004 under her own grass roots brand FAM TIES ent. S/he-dy plans to hit the college circuit one more gen this time performing at Universities all over the country. "Artist Of The Year" is also being sold on Cdbaby and Amazonas online retailers. She has also been networking between recordings, her 9 to 5, and completing her college education to get the album in independent and small chain record stores, and D.J. stands in New York, Virginia, Georgia, and Florida as starters. She has also made connections to get her single "Well Known To Make It..." in rotation on several college, underground, and southern radio stations beginning September 2004. In short S/he-dy's will and style demands attention and respect of audiences and artist alike. S/he-dy is equipped with confidence and unlimited creativity. From pen and pad, to delivery and performance, she is a true talent. Shedy- coming soon LOOK OUT FOR "Artist Of The Year" in your local stores

DOWNLOAD HERE

Similar manuals: