You don't need a crystal ball to see this band. The Gitanos, Spanish for the gypsies, have been featured on local, national and international television, receiving airplay in college and commercial markets. They have been working the San Francisco Bay Area, the Central Valley of California, making their way into the market of Southern California over the last seven years. The magic was apparent when The Gitanos teamed up with Michael Klooster. Michael, with multi-platinum credits to his name as keyboardist for Smash Mouth, agreed to co-produce and play keyboards on The Gitanos latest material. They have played shows with such acts as Paulina Rubio, A.B. Quintanilla and The Kumbia Kings, Cafe Tacuba, Aterciopelados, Jorge Santana, and Enenitos Verdes. Formed by Lead Guitarist / Singer: Raul Cadena, teaming up with Songwriter/Guitarist: Jimmy Moreno, with the back beat talent of Bassist: Steve Quesada, and Drummer: Gringo Star
