I dedicate all of my artistic endeavors to: My mother, Pat Dancy, who makes all things possible. My wife Martha, who is my unexpected and entirely undeserved gift from Heaven. Thanks to my many friends and relatives including, but not limited to: My dad, the late John Dancy, who correctly reminded me that, "Life is good", and his wonderful family who is also my family - my late Uncle Rusty, an intrepid iconoclast whom I miss dearly - Uncle Jim, whose enthusiasm and encouragement never ends - my personal manager and friend, the late Jon Hall - Terri Fricon, for seeing something in me that I wasn't sure was there anymore - my good friends and bandmates Louie Fragassi, Barry Beihoff, Mark Lansing, Mike Murphy, and, of course, my friend, band mate, and co-writer for over 35 years, Craig Fairchild - the original Tygers, my cousin Dave Kuck, Fred Euler, Dennis Duchrow, Gary Smith, Lanny Hale, Joe Turano and, again, Craig Fairchild - Quiffy alumni Gary Falcone, Jim McPhaul, Doug West, Ron Benedict, Joe Ramirez - WOKY superstar Bob Barry, Jim Ogreenc, Neil Speerbrecher, Leon Klekowski, the late Joe Crivello, Dale Rawson, and many more to whom I apologize for omitting. "Only You", was written by me for Martha, on the occasion of our 2nd wedding anniversary, December 26, 2001. May the dance never end!
