A fusion of Burmese classical, modern pop and electronica from an all-night performance in Mandalay, Myanmar. 2 MP3 Songs in this album (11:03) ! Related styles: WORLD: Asian- Southeast, AVANT GARDE: Electro-Acoustic Details: Burmese Crossover / Win Naung Orchestra An indescribable mixture of classical Burmese court music, modern pop and electronic fusion. This is a live recording of a street performance in Mandalay, Myanmar (December 2007). The all-night street festivals of upper Burma are a combination of dance and evolving musical forms that are performed by traveling troupes in temporary bamboo theaters. The traditional and electronic players are on opposite sides of the stage and play off each other in a reciprocating performance. The Win Naung troupe is one of the leading innovators of this art form. Fantastic and unlike anything else. Western Instruments -- Keyboard/Shawe Ba, guitar/TunTun, bass/kye Nyo, drum/Tin nyunt Traditional Instruments-- drum circle/Myat ko, flute/Mya Han, gong/Min Lwin, big drum/ U kho, drum -with-six-drums/khin maung toe, clapper/tie kyaw CD-R format (copy right- Loose Wheel Recordings)
