No Hope for Christmas Barbara Goodwin Book four in the Love Beyond Time series, but may be read as a standalone story. Modern-day flight Attendant Evie Benjamin wants adventure and she gets it when she time travels to 1940. Her first trip with Transcontinental and Western Air is on the first pressurized commercial airplane ever built-the luxurious Boeing 307 Stratoliner. James Jeffries III owns a worldwide construction company. He also works for MI5, securing information hoping to get the United States to help the British win the war against Germany. Evie is stunned by her first meeting with James. His voice flows like honey down her spine, calling to her, touching her deep in her soul. When James requests her for a top secret mission she is plunged into peril and loses her heart in the process. But the mission is compromised and Evie and James have to find out who leaked vital information while surviving the ravages of time and war amid a pitch-black, nighttime landing, a devastating car accident and other perilous adventures.
