21 Ways To Flood Your Website With Traffic To be truly profitable, you need visitors, and a lot of them. The more visitors you get, the more money you make. So how do I win more traffic where so many others have tried and failed? There are really only two things you need to do to bring a flood of visitors to your website. You have to give them a reason to want to come to your site, and you have to make them excited enough to get the word out to as many other people as possible. You can always buy traffic, if you have the money. There are plenty of internet marketers that would be glad to send traffic your way if the price is right. But wouldn't it be better to get other people to spread the word about your site For Free??? That is what viral marketing is all about. A visitor to your site sees something they like, and they tell a couple of people. Those people come to your site, and then each of them tell a couple more people, and those people tell a couple more people, and so on. It doesn't take long before thousands of people have heard about your website, and they all stop in to see what the buzz is about. The best part is, after you spend the money to get it set up and running, all or the rest happens without you having to spend any more money. Other people and website are happy to spread the word for you, at their own expense.
