A traditional "down home" gospel style of negro spirituals, sung with pride and passion in a rich, full-bodied voice, that will touch your soul. 13 MP3 Songs GOSPEL: Traditional Gospel, BLUES: Blues Vocals Details: Bertha (Underwood) Morgan is one of LGR RECORDS newest artists! Her anointed singing will move straight to your soul and touch your spirit! With songs like, "Plenty Good Room", "Walk With Me Lord", and "Gonna Lay Down My Burden", Bertha brings these deeply rooted Negro Spirituals to life in that Old Gospel Sound! Bertha is a born again, Spirit filled Christian, with a rich, robust, solid gospel voice. Bertha has been singing the praises of God for many years and has generated a huge following. Along with the anointed gospel that she pours her heart and soul into, Bertha has been singing these great Negro Spirituals and providing an education on the origins of this music for many years in schools, and through various events throughout the country during the Celebration of Black History Month. Bertha is a member and lead singer of the South Jersey Mass Choir, with two leads on their current release "Always Faithful". With her own up-coming debut Gospel CD in the works, Bertha is on the move for the Lord!
