Brooklyn-based folk singer-songwriter's debut album, featuring piano and vocally driven songs with cello. Rich harmonies, prolific lyrics and moving melodies. 9 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, FOLK: like Joni Details: NY born and bred, Jenn Friedman sat at her parents' piano with a melody she just couldn't get out of her head. Picking the notes out one by one, and unaware that she was opening the door to her lifelong passion, Jenn wrote her first song. For twenty years, this journey took her through the sounds of Peter, Paul and Mary, Carly Simon, Pete Seeger, swirling around the harmonies of the Beatles and the Beach Boys, and eventually hovering over Ani DiFranco, Jewel, Tori Amos, etc. A graduate of SUNY Purchase, Jenn spent her four years of college in "music lockdown," intensely writing, recording, and exploring the murky depths of the wild and crazy music industry, coming up for air while performing at such legendary venues as CBGB's, The Knitting Factory, The Sidewalk Caf and more. Jenn is a true singer/songwriterher songs are versatile in their musical style and their lyrical content, all the while having the common threads of her incredible piano skill and intense vocals, coaxing the listener on a magical journey through haunted houses, loooong car rides on open roads, unrequited love, and the occasional ditty about finding God at the circus! Currently making her home in New York City, Jenn's new album drops in September of 2007 and she hits the road soon thereafter. So keep your eyes and ears open, boys and girls, because Jenn Friedman's songs WILL change your lifeforever! Discography New Album (yet to be titled)-2007 Wake Up Summer-2005
