Celebrate your Spirit. An ecstatic soul fest with an eclectic blend of vocals and exotic instruments that cross the boundaries of chant, world, pop, new age, and dance. Refreshing, spirited, healing. 11 MP3 Songs NEW AGE: New Age, POP: Folkly Pop Details: #1 ON MANY NEW AGE RADIO CHARTS "These folks have plenty of style...when the undercurrent energy is combined with talent like this, there's no stopping what they can do...Excellent mix, great quality, this is a CD you'll want to keep, and play often. We're impressed enough that we rate it HIGHLY RECOMMENDED. Great album, high-energy spirit, and jubilation at the forefront." Rotcod Zzaj, Improvijazzation Nation "...The entire album intrigues, holds you and takes you from one experience of divine love to another-some gentle, some rollicking, all gorgeous. ...An artistic blend of exotic instrumentation and enlightening lyrics..." Chiwah, Light Connection Magazine "Spirit of Love is the new age, pop music of the future. Maya and Sage have found something here with their debut CD. It is a mixture of all the things we love... Spirit of Love is a wonderfully creative album of international influence and enjoyment!" Angela Hutchinson, Spirit-Works.net "...Starting with Maya's wonderful voice and genre splicing all the best of the adult-contemporary music forms into the mix, the duo delivers a stand-out date that is rich with energetic zest and zeal...Tasty throughout." Midwest Record Recap "After a very relaxing introductory invocation, a dance party broke out . . . and I couldn't have been more pleased! Quickly, Maya and Sage break free of traditional boundaries... Pleasantly surprised overall, especially at the diversity. Caught my attention a few times, something I wasn't expecting at all." Steve Allat, The Muse's Muse "... world dance beats, Sanskrit chants, songs and funky grooves all come together and make something more muscular than the usual twee New Age blandness that fills the racks...a lot of work and soul has gone into the production of what is Maya and Sage's debut album, and it is an album that will win you over." MusicWatch, the-borderland "Like the two majestic ancient figures, Radha and Krishna that grace the resplendent cover art, the married duo of Maya Sage is complimentary in all things music. They call themselves "Spirit Singers" and rightly so. Let your spirit be affected by their positive music and their positive attitude." R J Lannan, New Age Reporter MORE ABOUT "SPIRIT OF LOVE" Maya's soul awakening mantras and lyrics, clear prophetic vocals, groove guitar and piano are embellished with Sage's unique harmonies and multi-talents on percussion, didgeridoo, Celtic harp, Native American flute, electric guitar, harmonica, and keyboards. Special guest musicians, Silvia Nakkach, Geoffrey Gordon, Craig Owens, and Gary Regina add their inspiring talents to the mixes. These divine chants and songs of love are sometimes soft and tender, sometimes passionately rhythmic, always sprinkled with exotic sounds, and magically moved by world percussion. Each song carries a message of Love, inviting you to ecstatically merge with the sacred web of universal Love. The songs flow from soft and deeply connecting, like the title song "Spirit of Love" in English and Sanskrit, to dancing rhythms layered with melodic and exotic sounds in the frolicking party song, "Celebration." Maya and Sage's "feel good" music is pure sonic gold, sacred fun to light your path! "Maya has a beautiful voice and the music she and Sage create comes from a place of fine intention." Deva Premal Miten "I love Maya's voice. The spirit and energy coming out of her voice is profound and felt eternal." Raphael "Music to Disappear In"
