hard rockin, yet melodically rich, funky instrumental psychedelia. Fusion in the truest sense of the word, combining styles for an original result. Not Smooth Jazz. 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Jazz Fusion, ROCK: Instrumental Rock Details: Nome Sane? was a band from 1990 - 1996. It started out with the 1991 recording of the CD, "Nome Sane?" featuring a host of players (see credits) associated with the leader of the band, Teddy Kumpel. It organically evolved into a tight knit 4 piece group which made one recording called, "Nome sane?, the lost sessions". Nome Sane? did a bit of succesful touring during thier time together, but the band eventually evolved into a different beast as the members learned to sing and write lyrics. Sadly they grew apart muscially, but this tour deforce funk fusion band will live on through their unique recordings. Now "Nome Sane?'s" leader, Teddy Kumpel, is the leader of the rock band Teddybut, owner operator of Burning Beagle Studios in Brooklyn, NY and studio guitarist and producer par excellence. Tony Scherr, bassist for "Nome Sane?" has a solo record out on "Smells Like Records" and has played with many famous artists including the Lounge Lizards and Nora Jones. Andy Middleton is having a great creative career playing instrumental music with the likes of Ralph Towner and Dave Holland. Brian Dunne is a world renouned drummer for many famous artists including Chuck Loeb. All members stil reside in New York City.
