Texas Soul R&B with hints of Southern Rock and Funk. 13 MP3 Songs

BLUES: Rhythm Blues, BLUES: Texas Style

Details: Stephen James is a Soulful Singer with a sometimes gruff voice set to music that has the feel of Joe Cocker, Almann Brothers and Delbert McClinton. Every song on the album stands on its own both lyrically and musically. The diversity of Stephen James debut album ranges from boogie-woogie of the opening track Ten Dollar Blues to the funk sounds of Tick Tock Clock to the country sounds of Never Made Mexico which is reminiscent of Ray Charles in his early days. Penny Saved is a driving song highlighted by the unbelievable guitar work of musical guest Carter Arrington that will leave even the finest guitarists pushing the rewind button in amazement. Stephen James is a Kansas born singer that considers himself a songwriter first. Eleven of the Thirteen songs on this 50 minute recording were penned by Stephen. Music Man, written by Shane Patterson serves as a biography to the inner battles musicians face when giving up a traditional lifestyle in pursuit of being a musician. Just One Moment , written by Anthony William, is simply an amazing song that seems to build indefinitely -The lyrics There's nothing ahead if You leave me behind are just one of the many powerful lines that Stephens voice seems to melt into the listeners ears. The imagery in this album is excellent as any tune would be suitable for a video. "Always Feels Right" is a powerful album sure to strike a chord with any soul music lover.
