Nashville based Singer/Songwriter, Brady Mills, has won awards throughout the world for his voice which has been compared to Josh Groban. He has classical piano training, and incorporates many styles in his moving songs. 11 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, CLASSICAL: Traditional Details: Brady began learning piano at the age of eleven, after many years of singing in churches and at local events. From the moment he began playing, it was obvious that he had a natural musical talent. Throughout the next several years, he could be found in theatres, cathedrals, colleges, theme parks and competitions all over the world. In 1999, one such competition in Anaheim, California earned him "Best National Vocalist" award. Then, in 2000, Brady was honored with another prestigious award "Best International Vocalist" which was presented by Claire College, Cambridge University in England. After attending a songwriting conference at Winthrop University, he developed a strong interest in writing. During the conference, a song written by Brady was chosen for the year's conference theme. He has since moved to Tennessee, where he teaches private piano and continues to write and perform both on stage and in the studio.
