Erv and his producer Andrew LaValley worked hard to record this CD so the listener could experience the true songwriting and story telling talents that has made him a worldwide recording artist. He started recording Alaska on June 7, 2007 and completed his last song on December 19, 2007, the same night he was in a near fatal car accident. During his recovery he was surprised to see that the title track of the CD Alaska, which he had been promoting since July 2007, had made its way onto the European Country Music Chart at #81. It has shown up on the last 5 surveys with the most recent one placing Alaska at #44. Ervs accident has set the project back some but now it is ready for the world to hear. So as you listen to Basswood, A Green-Green Valley, When the Whippoorwill Sings, and Alaska you will witness the extraordinary places that has inspired Ervs songwriting. Im Homeward Bound was written when he was stationed in Germany for three years. This song came to life in the recording studio with the magic of Chris Wagoners fiddle, slide guitar, and mandolin lead parts that just want to make you move. Youre in my Memory was written when his family had to leave Germany, before his tour of duty was up, because of on going trouble in the country during the late 70s and early 80s. The Ervin Allen Music Promotions Department has started the mailing of the CD to DJs worldwide. Ervin is looking forward to having his new songs played so as many people as possible can hear his music. His first CD Moon and Stars, release in March 2006, appeared on the Roots True Country Music Charts on August 6, 2006 and remained there for 82 weeks. It has been played by over 1400 + radio stations worldwide. The many

e-mails and letters that he received from listeners and DJs encouraged him to undertake the recording of Alaska. People who are interested in Johnny Horton should consider this download.
