Larissa works with Executive Producer Ernst Bernard, to blend sexy Hip-Hop beats with inspiring, ethereal vocals to mold a unique new urban Trip-Hop/Pop/R&B sound. While still maintaining her piano player roots, Hello also features guest rappers including Young Mischiff and well known radio artist Ray C on a few select songs. Just recently in October of 2008, before the album was even officially released to the public, Larissa's song "Thoughts Of You" was chosen for and released on a promo ad for CBS's Primetime show Ghost Whisperer, starring Jennifer Love Hewitt. For comparison purposes, this new album entitled Hello has been said to sound like Frou Frou meets Dido and Madonna with a little Bjork music production and light R&B influenced vocal-stylings. With catchy hooks and luscious harmonies there's bound to be something on this CD for everyone to fall in love with no matter what genre they listen to. Tags: pop
