REVIEWS Garageband Track of the Day Nothing But Trouble A Massive Worldwide Hit! Bluesy guitar in the intro is awesome and female vocals are both ambient and soulful. Sounds like a cross between Mary Mary and Alicia Keys! (Nomad Music from New York) ### Garageband Track of the Day You Got Me Such Powerful Vocals! This vocalist has so much power! She projects and her pitch is on. Nice vocal rhythmic patterns. The production also hit it. I love this vocalist! Great job! (Scariella from New York) ### Broadjam Feature Special Delivery Incredible Artist! Crystal clear vocals and solid production make this one of the best tunes I've heard yet. Grab the fog machines and the glow sticks for a fun, club-ready jam. (Broadjam Staff Reviewer)  xx A SPECIAL MESSAGE FROM

LAURA xx This album took 5 years to make (another story all together which I'll leave for the "talk show tour" chuckle), and I suppose if I get really technical about it, a few more years of experience to find the subject matter and the words... The finished article is something of a mystery to me now. Every time I listen the songs reveal more truth, more pain and more love than I knew existed at the time of its writing. There are so many people to thank but really only one person was there from the first song to the last. Thank you to Paul Sedkowski for composing all the music and for bringing out the music in me; for feeling deeply the experiences I needed to share; for listening to how those experiences made me feel; for guiding me out of some of the darkest times in my life and for translating those experiences into really great songs with universal messages that give reason and meaning for them to have ever happened at all. To Paul and to all the people that I dearly love -- "Nothing ever comes from nothing, nothing ever could. Somewhere in my youth or childhood, I must have done something good."
