

Mp3 Plural - Have A Rad Summer

Sometimes indie, sometimes twee, sometimes pop, always wonderful. Plural is about the songs that get stuck in your head and wishing the world knew about it. Or, maybe just a secret for yourself. 14 MP3 Songs ROCK: Americana, POP: New Wave Details: Plural isn't gonna make you sweat. They don't want you to. Their appetite for strong harmonies and sensitive melodies blend smoother than cream corn and applesauce. One taste and you'll call your mom. Born out of a long, hard working 8 years in the "almost was" ska/punk band, Buck-O-Nine, Scott Kennerly and drummer Jeff Hawthorne teamed up with singer/songwriter John Meeks to form the beginnings of Plural. Joined on violin by Mary Forrest, they recorded their debut record, "Have A Rad Summer". While their sound has been compared to that of Lifes Rich Pagaent era R.E.M, you will also hear glimpses of indie rock, california pop and alt country. Diverse, yes, but grouded in strong songwriting with an emphasis on melody and mood. Take a listen, and enjoy. Also check out the NEW album "I Feel Beautiful"
