Easy listening music, one voice and one twelve string guitar. 13 MP3 Songs EASY LISTENING: Soft Rock, FOLK: Modern Folk Details: Scott say's " This cd is my expression of the time. I said my prayer and asked God for help then I pressed record and the music is the answer. " Scott started playing guitar at 12 years old on his older brother's Yamaha 6 string. Scott was born and raised in Sault Ste. Marie Ontario. Scott first formed his band Unisun when he was 20 years old. With just a name and one other band member Scott had a long way to go. Around 1995 Scott wrote "It all comes Back Around" and recorded it with Rick Gowing and Kendra Gib. That was the first real release of any of Scott's Music. Shortly after that Scott went on to travel and play his music across Canada and the USA. It wouldn't be till 7 and half years later till Scott met Melanie Kitchen and start to rebuild his first dream Unisun. With Melanie being an accomplished pianists learning how to play bass guitar was only a short few months before Melanie and Scott started playing around the Toronto area as Unisun. Scott opened a small recording studio Shooting Star Recording in Toronto and continued to play with Melanie and various other drummers. One of the drummers along the way recorded a cd with Scott and Melanie called "Standing on the Door Step". Shortly after Kelly moved on Scott Recorded "Final Stage". Scott's latest quest has been to follow his music to L.A. on his 1100-V-Star performing and handing out CD's along the way.
