Born into a family of musicians, music came to Tita naturally. She learned to play the piano with her grandmother and later the bass with her father, the bass player for the 70s rock band "Os Mutantes". Tita also studied in Los Angeles MI (Musicians Institute) and has paid her dues in So Paulos music scene playing bass, singing and sharing the stage with widely-recognized artists such as Bocato (Metalurgia, Elis Regina, Gal Costa, Maria Rita), Joo Donato and Luz de Caroline, among many others. Tita now joyously embarks on this, the journey of her first solo recording titled "11:11", one in which she gathers a host of excellent musicians and producers from Brazil and the United States including Apollo 9 (ex-Planet Hemp, producer for Otto and Seu Jorge), Andre Caccia Bava, Kassim, JJ (Jorge Bem), Alberto Lopez (AKA Beto Cascales) and Bryan Velasco among others. Armed with a great band whose members have played and/or recorded with Sergio Mendes, Airtto Moreira, Flora Purim, Jurassic 5, Keb Mo and Celia Cruz, Ms. Lima is ready to take her music to audiences around the world. Titas music has been a favorite among DJs worldwide, including Patricia Palumbo and Rafael Moraes (Brazil), Garth Trinidad (US) and Gilles Peterson (UK), who included her song A Conta Do Samba in the compilation Brownswood

Bubblers, Vol. 1 released on his Brownswood Recordings label in November 2006. People who are interested in Bebel Gilberto The Sound Rebirth should consider this download.
