Having played in a band as a young man, I discovered music was my passion. However, at the age of 19, I began commercial fishing for my livelihood. We would make long fishing trips to Georges Bank and the Gulf of Maine. It was on one of those long trips I started writing songs to keep my music alive. The first two original songs I recorded I sent to the Songwriters Association of Canada (SAC) and was chosen by SAC to attend a Power Song Shop in Halifax NS. I am a member of Music Nova Scotia, Garage Band and SOCAN. I have been playing music for approximately 30 years. Growing up I was mostly influenced by the Eagles and the Beatles. After all these years my passion is still writing songs, which range from folk to country to rock. My bylingual (French and English) songs have had local airplay for the past 14 years. Living and working on and near the ocean has given me numerous ideas and continues to inspire me in my creative pursuits. I hope you like what you hear.
