Members include world renowned vocalist 'Notes'(Scott Walsh featured on mtv2, melodic records, manna records) and producer 'mnolo'(Manuel Antonio Escobar, owner of Collage Records). Their debut album, 'Lalaland' was produced, recorded mixed @ 'step edit ', mnolo's downtown San Antonio studio. Notes has been a part of the texas hiphop seen for over 10 years with string of releases as Notes as well as under different monikers. Mnolo has been producing electronic music underground hiphop for 7 years collaborating with many texas producers, mc's musicians. Notes and mnolo met in 2004 and began collaborating on various project, most notably Big Sound Not a Word. One day they decided to put their heads together on a dedicated release and chose the name walking sticks to characterize not only positive nature of the project but also to describe the genre they were to create, 'traveling music' , music to aide you on your journey through life, in both this physical reality as well as the spiritual (and don't forget psychedelic happy land). Some of Walking Sticks influences include dj vadim , de la soul, ninja tune, amon tobin, coldcut, prince paul, wu-tang, bob marley, james brown, big daddy kane, kmd, leaders of the new school. Walking sticks can be found performing in venues throughout Texas.
