Decision maker, provider, advocate, encourager, disciplinarian, teacher. As a parent of a child with special needs, you wear many hats. Every day you face difficult decisions about education, health care, financial planning, and more. With so many unique issues to deal with, you need a comprehensive guide to help you: Make decisions about education; Choose the best method of discipline; Handle problems at school and with peers; Plan for your child's future; Make time for your own well being. There is help out there--in fact, there is more support for children with special needs than ever before--you just need to know where to look for it. With this guide, you'll have the information you need to help your children live life as fully as they can--each and every day.
