Details: Baron Bane is a magical, intriguing, border crossing multimedia band who stretches the boundaries for what a regular band can do. The group consists of three musicians and two graphical designers, - and they all stand under the Baron's command. The Baron's servants' accompaniment during live gigs are beautiful movies shot on big screens. The group has, since its forming, done the following; art exhibitions with combined sound installation/live concert, overhead projector battles, incorporated dance acts in live gigs, club gigs and a lot of open air festival gigs. Baron Bane released his self titled debut album on Stupid Dream Records on November 7. The album contains 10 strong tracks and has been described as an refreshing hybrid between electronica and pop/rock. One of the forthcoming singles, "Soften", is mixed by internationally acclaimed house producer Tony Senghore. Soften has in the fall of 2004 gotten rotation on London-based radio station XFM. (xfm) Stupid Dream Records and Baron Bane has recently signed a distribution deal with the independent distributor Basstone Music which makes the album available nationwide in Sweden. Stupid Dream Records are currently booking promotional gigs to support the album release. (basstone.se) "Baron Bane surpasses everything! This is the best I've ever seen!" "My eyes are satisfied just as much as my ears" - Erik Sss, Arbetarbladet 8/11 2004 "Baron sets an excellent example and wins everything!" - Oskar Hanska, Gefle Dagblad 9/11 2004 "Free from standard patterns and clichs. Behind the band, a pair of cobra telephones' act of mating is shown on a screen. So weird, so perfect." - Sven Melin, Arbetarbladet 6/8 2004 "It's magnificent, weird and beautiful!" - Stefan Westrin, Gefle Dagblad 16/4 2003 "Baron Bane has to be one of the best bands right now." - Stefan Westrin, Gefle Dagblad 14/12 2003 Contact us if you want to know more about the
