Classic swing, bossa nova jazz in the sweet tone style of Paul Desmond 10 MP3 Songs JAZZ: Traditional Jazz Combo, JAZZ: Bossa Nova Details: Following Desmond's final performance at the Monterrey Jazz Festival in 1976, Seaside Post reporter Robert Miskimon wrote, "Desmond has achieved what every serious artist strives for, total authenticity and purity." Baron von Rummel has produced an tribute to Paul Desmond called "Alone Together." Baron's purity brings to life the regal authenticity of one of Jazz History's brightest stars, the late Mr. Paul Desmond. Baron von Rummel has the distinction of being Lake Tahoe's very own Jazz Saxophonist, with a golden alto sound reminiscent of the late Paul Desmond, of Dave Brubeck's group. As a 27 year resident of the west shore of Lake Tahoe, CA., he is a familiar figure, not only as a performer, but also as a jazz educator, in the music classroom of North Tahoe High School, and as a private instructor. He studied music at highly acclaimed North Texas State University and received a Bachelor of Music degree with a major in Jazz Education. Baron plays alto, soprano, tenor and baritone saxophones. He has appeared in showrooms, lounges and nightclubs, from Lake Tahoe and Reno, all the way down to Las Vegas, performing, not only as a musician, but also as a music director and show producer. Baron von Rummel has performed with his jazz groups at the West Shore Cafe, in Homewood, CA., for 18 years, and also performs regularly at Sunnyside Resort, near Tahoe City, Moody's Bistro, in Truckee, CA., the Sienna Hotel Casino, in Reno, and at Northstar at Tahoe, near Truckee, CA. He has performed with Abbe Lane, Billy Preston, The Coasters, Larry Collins, Zella Lehr, Surprise Package, Liazon, Rubber Biscuit, The Drifters, The Temptations, Melissa Spangler/Las Vegas, Little Anthony the Imperials, BJ Thomas, Harry Blackstone, Wayne Newton, Tommy Tutone and the Atlanta Rhythm Section. Baron also performed with the orchestra at the 1996 Miss Universe Pageant in

Las Vegas, the 1983 Bob Hope Desert Classic in Palm Springs, and was a member of the Reno Eldorado Casino's orchestra for the Grammy Award winning Broadway Musical "SMOKEY JOE'S CAFE." He was the music arranger, assistant Music Director and featured soloist for the Reno Hilton's musical swing revue production of "WORK THAT SKIRT" and "ESCAPE." Baron von Remmel has opened concerts for such artists as Bill Cosby and The Yellowjackets, and performs many styles of music from classic jazz artists such as Paul Desmond, Stan Getz, Gerry Mulligan and Duke Ellington, to smooth jazz artists such as David Sanborn, Kenny G, Grover Washington, Jr, Spyro Gyra and Richard Elliot. He is currently Producer, Director and co-star in an original Musical Comedy called "NEVADA'S STORY."
