Dance music that's, driven by fuzzy basslines and sneaky and cheeky 90's house vocals infused together with a good night out, and a little trance on the side. 7 MP3 Songs in this album (38:38) ! Related styles: ELECTRONIC: House, ELECTRONIC: Disco People who are interested in Martin Solveig Kid Massive TV Rock should consider this download. Details: The second tempter from Discotouch is The Code, a fuzzy-bass-driven song with grainy analogue synth melodies, and featuring vocals from Michaela Young and Discotouch himself! Including the original Radio Edit version, the EP also comprises of club house trance remixes, a jackin remix, a cappella and a bonus instrumental version of Lift Me Up, another disco-influenced track from the upcoming album. Its a song concerned with that never-dying feeling of wanting to have a good time, and not settling for just any old club! Pet Radio is a concept album; combining both house and electronica styles, infused with funk, vocal Latin elements and Discotouchs own brand of tough disco sampled, intense disco house that keeps the underlying groove intact. A dance album with a difference. DJ, producer and musician Discotouch will be unleashing his debut album, Pet Radio in the second half of 2009.
