Details: Music is a fundamental human expressive vehicle based on universal skills that each of us possesses in power. If you want to really know someone deeply, you have to listen when he plays for himself in its private or for a few individuals. My favorite musicians and artists have worked mostly in solitude as writers and inventors, and have looked deeply into their soul and translated the universal humanity's archetypes in their works and their lives. Perhaps for this reason I am fond of acoustic music, popular or cultured, produced by soloists or small instrumental ensemble. As a composer and fingerstyle guitarist, my music has a teaching value and is proposed in combination with the visual arts for the creation of modern multimedia works. The CD "Il gioco della memoria" of 2003 is inspired by the photographs of Marco Curr who took care of the cover. Among the other work that I realized there is: a collection of lullaby titled "Ninna nanna per un fiore" 2007; a show where I put in music the poems of L.J.Hughes entitled "Midwinter Blues" 1988/2008 and a collection of songs "Album" of 2005. I wrote music for theater and multimedia projects. I deal professionally teaching guitar in popular music and also doing a lot of training for the development of creative abilities. Thanks to all friends and artists that I met and who with their enthusiasm and creativity have helped to improve my work and my life.
