Witnessing Joey Pearson onstage with a live band is simply unforgettable. Ever since his first performance at age nine, Joeys audience discovered that this old soul from Georgia could really sing. In the diverse neighborhood that comprised his world, radio served up a swirling gumbo of great musicSoul, Gospel, Blues, Rock, Pop and R&B. Joeys young ears absorbed it all. Today, his shows sizzle with the spirit of his main inspiration: the legendary voices of Classic Soul and R&B. With five years of live performances, substantial CD sales, and fans in 30 countries, Joey Pearson is rapidly becoming a global attraction. It only takes one Web search to reveal dozens of fan sites in multiple languages. In addition to appearances on national television and other notable venues, Joey also performs in-store for Wal-Mart and Westfield Shopping Centers. Now residing near San Diego, California, Joey relentlessly hones his craft, not only as a singer and performer, but also as a songwriter and musician. He writes his own lyrics and music on the piano, as he did for most of his latest release Authentic. His voice, personality, raw ability and love for performing has set the stage for Joey Pearson to become a premier recording artist for the long haul.
