Judy's catchy, award-winning music and easy to listen to style will have you and your children listening over and over again. 13 MP3 Songs KIDS/FAMILY: General Children's Music, FOLK: Folk Pop Details: Judy Caplan Ginsburgh is a multi-award winning singer who specializes in music for families. She has spent many years as a music specialist in the early childhood classroom and is a much sought after keynote speaker and teacher at national and regional Early Childhood conferences. Judy's music for children is participatory, educational and fun. It is the type of music that has numerous practical applications in a classroom. Judy also has the type of voice that kids (and their parents) can listen to over and over again. This is a great car CD. Judy performs over 100 concerts a year throughout North America. She is an expert at involving children with her on-stage. She teaches classes on discipline through music and her techniques are apparent when she performs as she has the audience right in the palm of her hand. Songs are active and fun, but every concert ends with a soft, calming lullaby. Judy was named the 1999 Louisiana Professional Artist of the Year and in 1990 was honored with a special Music Award from the Religious Heritage of America Foundation. Her recordings have won high praises and have received a National Parenting Center Seal of Approval, an iParenting Media Award, 2 Parents Choice Silver Honors, and a Parents Choice Seal of Approval. Whether you are a teacher, a parent, or best of all, a kid --- you will LOVE this CD which contains 13 educational and fun songs for children of all ages.
