Born July 2006, the 3 members, Matthew, Jared and Peter, were on a mission to take music in a serious manner while maintaining the love they had for each other and for the same kind of music. Best friends for years, it was easy for the three of them to have a great connection away from music, and they quickly learned it wouldn't take them much work to establish that connection anywhere else. They immediately started playing shows and recording their own music developing a small faithful audience to every show paying attention to the details of what they needed to take the next step. While grabbing influences from bands such as blink-182 and the beatles, they also were taken by other groups such as minus the bear and moneen. After a year of hard work, in October of 2007 they took to the real time and went into the studio to record their first ep. It was there that they realized they were in this for the long haul. Ever since stepping out of that studio, they have been doing anything in their nature to make this a profession. From playing shows to recording more music to promoting world wide; they are getting ready for the big time. And they're getting closer by the hour.
