Dark and beautiful, ebbing and flowing with heart-breaking melodies and soaring choruses. Each song a masterpiece. - "This record is dope" - Mat Kearney 11 MP3 Songs POP: Folk Pop, ROCK: Acoustic Details: I believe, at the end of the day, we're all artists, says newcomer, indie-rocker Michael Logen. The question is whether we'll embrace it every day or run screaming from it. The beauty is the fun and danger of sharing it." Blending elements of pop, folk and rock, Michael wrote, arranged, played on and co-produced his long-awaited debut album, "Things I Failed To Mention". Much of the album was written while backpacking through Europe with a guitar and notebook. Michael is joined on this album by co-producers Joe West (Emmy Lou Harris, Jewel, Justin Timberlake) and Chris Farren (Dave Matthews, Johnny Cash) with a guest appearance by recording artist Jill Phillips. If you like happy-go-lucky dittys that tie things together neatly by the end of the song, then this album is not for you. But if you're looking for a moody intensity that erupts into a pure and powerful line at a moment's notice, songs dark and beautiful, this may be the album you've been waiting for. Though Michael has a home in Nashville, he spends so much time traveling the US and Europe that his true home arguably consists of a suitcase, a guitar and a hotel room. Whether touring with a full band or playing solo, Michael's emotive live show and captivating stage presence are holding fans spell-bound around the globe and building a fiercely loyal following. Michael has played the Ryman Auditorium, Exit/In, The Living Room in NYC and in venues and universities all across Europe. 2-time Winner of the 2006 Singer/Songwriter Awards in London with So Much For Amazing and Mystery.
