He would eventually go on to say "Life is so cruel, it's therapeutic for me to write flows." At the age of 15, Noah and K-Raw, a friend from junior high school, decided to give the music industry a serious attempt. The result of their union with other neighborhood friends led to the formation of Lost Soulz. Being unable to attain the level of success he knew that he deserved in his hometown of Detroit, he packed up and moved to the new Black Mecca - Atlanta, Georgia. With Noah possessing the determination and K-Raw the charisma, the two attracted the attention of Medu Records CEO, Honeil "Jelani" Nelson one day while they were practicing. It didn't take long for him to recognize the raw talent the two possessed. Jelani then introduced them to the other members of the Medu family. After a few weeks of dialogue Lost Soulz signed to Medu Records. Now Noah and K-Raw are being propelled onto the world's stage as a voice for their generation, and the Hip-Hop community. All they demand of you is your absolute attention By the age 16, Sine Language had earned the respect of his peers and was seen as a talented MC. However, his drive has pushed him to strive for more than just a good reputation on the amateur MC scene. By a fortunate turn of events, Sine's music fell into the hands of Medu Records CEO, Honeil "Jelani" Nelson. Now, at almost 18 years of age, Sine is living in Toronto and will be appearing on the Medu Records compilation album "Medu Movements: The First Occasion". He is now in the studio working on his solo debut. Without a doubt Sine represent the new face and voice of Hip-hop. He is committed to putting Toronto on the map and changing the game forever.
