Pop with a touch of Country-Rock 10 MP3 Songs POP: Party Pop, COUNTRY: Country Pop Details: Tony Poptamas was born on the 23th of May 1969, in Transylvania, Romania. He lives in Norway today. From an early age, he showed great musical talent, learning to play guitar and mandolin. His voice is often confused with Garth Brookss. Hes also a music&lyrics writer, and made a pop-rock-country album with his own songs. On this project he was working together with musicians from Nashville TN USA, the same musicians recording with known names like Faith Hill and Nataly Imbruglia. "The Universe" is the song that can be heard on many radio stations in Europe, US and over the internet radio, all over the world. This is a slow ballad, while the CD calles to PARTY. The album "Cross The Line" is inspired by Party Trolls, Summertime, Friends Da Beib. ENJOY!
