The band has strong local airplay in the Boston area, and features two of the city's most inventive guitarists. The CD is a field day for guitar players and rock fans alike, drawing on everything from Fripp Eno's ambient music to the songs of the late bluesman Willie Love and the power of late-'60s psychedelia for inspiration. And the disc's smooth flow from pop to rock to instrumentals to acoustic melodies makes for a rich and rewarding listening experience.
