Southern crunk lyrical down home based brothers with a message.. 16 MP3 Songs HIP HOP/RAP: Spiritual Rap, HIP HOP/RAP: Southern Style Details: Straight from the dirtiest ally in Georgia, A diamond in the rough has truly emerged. Disciples of Grace (Who commonly go by D.O.G.) are sure to truly bless the ears of anyone who has the honor of hearing their music. Made up of Atlanta based MC's "Teacher-Preacher" and "Mark-Daniel", Two of the south's elite heavyweights on the microphone. D.O.G. will take you on a emotional roller coaster with there mixture of everything from hot club bangers to deeply rooted dramas but I guarantee that you enjoy every minuet of the ride. One of the first things you realize when listening to D.O.G. is that they are as real as it gets. They talk to real people, they address real problems, and they come back with real responses. "We have a slogan that we stick to with our music," says Teacher-Preacher. "If I said it, then I lived it". And trust me when you listen to the Album you can believe every word that is spoken. "We are just two regular people that can flow," said Mark-Daniel. But don't let their modest attitude deceive you; these guys are going to make a lot of heads turn in the game. Disciples of Grace are defiantly "Trend Setters". They might have you bouncing in your whip while at the same time your re-evaluating your life. When listening to D.O.G. you are promised to get something out of it. There is something in every song that you can relate to. Big things are in the future for these guys and we are letting it be known right now!
