Adult contemporary with a southern, country, twist. new classic 13 MP3 Songs COUNTRY: Modern Country, ROCK: Modern Rock Details: Elvis Nagel and Smith are a team of three songwriters/musicians and recording artists. After pursuing performing careers for the past 20 years or so, they now spend most of their time at "River Rock Recording" in Clackamas, Oregon. Elvis Nagel and Smith write songs about their jobs, neighborhoods, life experiences and some are just for fun. To squeeze their style into a category, it would be Adult Contemporary Country/Rock Mix. Elvis Nagel is the main singer and is also a fun entertainer. Elvis co-writes many of the songs on the new Elvis Nagel and Smith release, "Lost in Nashville". Artists which have been an influence on Elvis include Frank Sinatra, Perry Como, Elvis Presley, Gene Krupa and the Funk Brothers. Tom Smith is an excellent guitar player and a very creative writer. Tom wrote many of the songs on "Lost in Nashville". With his Southern California roots, his influences include Love, Bob Dylan, Eric Clapton, and of course the Beatles, Eagles and Stones. Phil Smith plays many of the instruments for Elvis Nagel and Smith. In fact, Phil plays most of the instruments on "Lost in Nashville". You can hear flavors of his favorite artists such as Dire Straits, Fleetwood Mac, Carlos Santana, Billy Gibbons and Don Henley as you browse the new CD. Phil has opened shows for Pat Benatar, Blue Oyster Cult, Rory Gallagher and other established acts. Phil also co-wrote "Don't Stop Now", recorded by Vanilla Fudge, which is on the album "Mystery" on the Atco label. (Available on Amazon.com) The goal of Elvis Nagel and Smith is to continue to write and record our music, get it to people like you where we hope that one or more of our "babies" will be recognized as a great song. Don't forget to check out "Lost in Nashville" and our first release, "All In", here at cdbaby.com and apple.com/itunes.
