ABOUT 'WHEN PATHS CROSS': Robert Benton, Director of the Quay Theatre: "Excellent on all counts" Yaron Stavi, bass player with Gilad Atzmon and the Orient House Ensemble. Currently working with Nigel Kennedy and Robert Wyatt: "I like it a lot. Very nice songs. Beautiful intimate performance and production. Cool." Tommaso Starace, saxophonist with his own quartet: "I have listened to, and enjoyed very much, your CD 'When Paths Cross': it really is a product of love and you surely put a lot of great musical input into the recording. I admire the way you play just a few notes on your solos (for example on the flute, that, by the way, sounds great!) not making them complicated, but straight to the point. You both make a good pair."
