Pop-quirky meets acoustic and rock. 10 MP3 Songs POP: Quirky, AVANT GARDE: Experimental Details: Album Description: Jonathan's new solo album "Pee Pee Tee Pee" takes his "Loosey Goosey" album to the next level. Funny. Serious. Intellectual at times. The piano is mostly in the foreground with layered vocals and a blend of synthesized sounds from the 80s to the present. Jonathan is both the composer and performer. Short Bio of Jonathan Yasuda: Jonathan was born in Boston and began studying piano at the age of five. He was a student at the All Newton Music School under Mrs. Susan Osberg, and winner of the school's concerto competition at age eleven, performing Beethoven's Piano Concerto No. 3. Jonathan enrolled in the New England Conservatory Preparatory School, studying first with Mrs. Jean Stackhouse for three years and then with Mr. Jonathan Bass. After being awarded first place in the 1998 Preparatory School's Concerto Competition, Jonathan performed Prokofiev's Piano Concerto No.1 in the historic Jordan Hall. Upon graduation, he received the 2001 Theory Department Award, Chamber Music, and Piano Department Award. Jonathan graduated from the College of the Holy Cross, class of 2005. He was the Brooks Scholar for his class, receiving a full tuition merit based scholarship, majoring in Music with a minor in Economics-Accounting and a Pre- Law concentration. As a sophomore Jonathan performed Rachmaninoff's Second Piano Concerto with the Holy Cross Orchestra. Jonathan does not limit himself to the classical world. He frequently performs for venues as a jazz pianist as well. He is open to all genres so long as it broadens his musical horizon. In his opinion, every piece of music is like a message in a bottle: it can be from all the way around the world, but it's for the artist to pop the cork and read the letter to the world. When he is not in front of a piano, Jonathan can often be found sailing or ferrying on the water. He is a certified United States Sailing Instructor and a Coast Guard licensed Merchant Marine Officer. Jonathan is currently composing and actively performing in the Boston area.
