During that time he was involved in the orchestra, jazz band, show choir and starting his own business of playing for weddings and DJ'ing parties. After high school, Justin moved to LA to start writing and recording. When he landed a great permanent weekly gig back in Indianapolis, he headed home and began a headlining act at Casio's speakeasy for five years. He has been booked at various locations around Indy from Bella Vita and The Cozy, to HillCrest and The Keystone Grill. In addition, performances have taken him to surrounding states and cities. built an enormous fan base in and around the Indianapolis area and coast to coast. His music reaches all ends of the spectrum. Each album takes on a tone of its own.....creating a mood of Romance and Dance. copyright 2005 The album's graphic design was also created by Justin, including taking his own photographs with a remote control camera. He enjoys creating all his own album covers.....and tends to go through about 10 completely different versions before choosing.
