Acoustic-based Rock - Songs about the outdoors, love, and life. 8 MP3 Songs ROCK: Acoustic, POP: Quirky Details: Ken lives in Charlotte, NC, and has been entangled in a love affair with music throughout his life. He was singing along with records as a pre-schooler, and began writing his first songs at age 10. As a teenager, he learned to play drums, guitar, bass guitar, harmonica, and some keyboards, and embraced a wide variety of musical styles. Most of Ken's life as a musician has been focused on the bass, performing in east coast bands and studio work. But after bowing out of the music scene for a while, he jumped back in 2001, focusing on the guitar and songwriting. He currently is gigging in the Carolinas, performing his own brand of acoustic pop/rock and ballads. His love of the outdoors; hiking and camping, and whitewater canoeing and kayaking, is inspiration for many of his songs. First Descent is Ken's first CD as a solo artist. He sings about paddling, nature, love, and life, and uses varying styles to take the listener on an invigorating and musical journey. Listen . . . and make the journey with him. ENDLESS SUMMER QUARTERLY, the top Brian Wilson and Beach Boys fan magazine, included Ken's song "River Flow" on the Dennis Wilson tribute CD included in the Spring 2004 issue.
