Details: Icelandic pop/rock band Menn rsins (e.: Men of the Year) was founded three years ago by singer/guitarist Svfnir and keyboard player/singer Halli (Haraldur Vignir). Their main goal in the beginning was to work on a few songs that Svfnir had up his sleeve and wanted to work on. Recordings were made and few of the songs got some considerable airplay on the national radio station. The band went through some personal changes (mostly changing bass players) until electric bassist Sigurdr Gumundsson joined them in late 2006. Drummer Diddi (Kjartan Gunason) had been onboard from the early days of the band. In 2007 the band started to work on some more songs with all the members chipping in on the songwriting. After an intensive rehearsal period in the fall of 2007 they locked themselves away at Lundgaard Studios in Denmark and recorded 12 tracks for their debut album (released on their own label in September 2008). The music of Menn rsins does not easily fall into one category. All members are active musicians and have played in most styles of music. Haraldur has been with (grunge) rockers Dead Sea Apple for over a decade and is also composing and arranging in classical settings as well as composing for commercials. Drummer Diddi has played (for instance) with (Balkan folk sensation) Rssbanar, rockers Ske and modern classical ensembles safold Chamber Orchestra and Caput. Bassist Sigurdr comes from a funk and jazz background but with strong roots in rock and pop music. Svfnir is firmly rooted in the singer/songwriter (troubadour) tradition with some punk and new wave as an early influence as well. So its easy to say that Menn rsins have a big palette of influences and experiences to choose from and add to their musical musings. But at the core their music is melodic pop/rock with arrangements ranging from string laden ballads and horn driven grooves to stripped down up-tempo rocking out! Members are: Haraldur Vignir Sveinbjörnsson - keyboard, guitar, vocals Kjartan Diddi Gunnarsson drums and percussion, background vocals Sigurður Gumundsson electric bass Svfnir Sigurðarson vocals, guitar
