Power pop with a dash of rock, strong melodies and rich vocals. Fun indie rock tunes that are seamlessly catchy, even at first listen. 13 MP3 Songs POP: Power Pop, ROCK: 90's Rock Details: "Hometown heroes Musical Outfits should feel very comfortable playing against the backdrop of Chicago's sky line at Lollapalooza. The four-piece has played almost every venue in the city. Thankfully, their power pop tunes are catchy without becoming saccharine copies of everything else played on the radio." --Janine Shaults Chicago Innerview Fun indie rock with breathy vocals that bounces from shoulder to shoulder and has potential to break your feet from its stationary place on the floor. -- New City Chicago "What a great CD" -- Chris Payne Q101 "It blows me away how such a young band can sound so mature, I listen to lots of music before I decide what to play on the air and I just love this bands sound." -- Richard Milne - 93.1 WXRT Indie rockers the Musical Outfits wear for almost any occasion, offering an assortment of wholesome, alt-rock tunes, soulful ballads and upbeat pop melodies. The group began when singer Adam Ashbach and guitarist Jimmy Giannopoulos first met in 1999 and since then, has evolved into a refreshing and mature four-piece rock act. Over the years they have developed a handsome resume of gigs; acting as the house band at Lillys, a popular club in Chicago's upscale Lincoln Park neighborhood, as well as the citys legendary Wise Fools Pub. In addition they have been featured at popular venues throughout the city such as Double Door, House of Blues, Metro, Schubas, Empty Bottle and Elbo Room. Their live performances are thrilling, and are known for being captivating and charismatic, appealing to a diverse audience. They released their debut album Left Here in March of 2005. Recorded at the famous Chicago Recording Company and mastered by Chris Athens at Sterling Sound in New York City; Left Here has received praise and critical acclaim from music lovers spanning the globe. They enjoyed winning prominent awards and recognition on GarageBand.com. The record features upbeat tracks like Routine of the Dancer and Redesign as well as soulful ballads such as Impossible Day and Bullets. The album is creating a big buzz in and around Chicago; popular radio stations like 93.1 WXRT, WLUW and Q101 are currently playing cuts off of the album. The sentiments of Left Here manage to resonate with everyone who listens.
