This is Mykl's ninth full length CD release in the last three years, and it is the third album in his renowned Soundscape Triolgy - "Symphony Of Ascension". The first is titled: Ascension the 7th Wave released in 1998. It was followed by: To Truth A Dance in 2000, and now in October 2001 Aurarecords is proud to present the brand new release of Mykl's work the CD: A...Head Of Sound. Its the journey within a journey, taking the listeners through the soul stirring labyrinth of textured sounds and rhythms from deep within. Past, present and future all combine in this dramatic soundscape. From the simple openings with nature merging with pecussion, temple bells, flutes, and voices flowing on to the full force and power of the modern symphony orchestra and world dance beats. Mykl composes music that so effortlessly traverses through time and far away lands enveloping the listener within a constant hypnotic dream state going full circle re-emerging into his eclectic contemporises with oftentimes startling, and dramatic sfx. If you are a lover of film music or just great music, then this triolgy of albums is definately your choice for imagination, heart and soul. 5 stars.
