Mix together some Ben Folds, Tori Amos, Sarah McLachlan, Fiona Apple and you'll get the piano based indie-pop-rock sound of Shannon Corey 10 MP3 Songs POP: Piano, ROCK: Folk Rock Details: Originally from RI, Shannon moved to NYC in hopes of pursuing a career in music. This 26-year-old classically trained pianist turned contemporary singer/songwriter has been plugging away at the New York City music scene for the past two years where you could have seen her at various venues including The Knitting, The Bitter End, Kenny's Castaways, CBGB's Gallery, and The Supper Club's KING KONG ROOM. Shannon's combination of rock, pop, folk, and classical truly hit home to a large number of loyal fans within NYC and up through New England. Her emotional piano lines, catchy hooks, gorgeous melody lines, excellent musicianship, and smoky vocals always seem to keep people coming back for more. "I'm proud of what I've done. Everything I've written has come from a place that is true and authentic. A place that forces me to spill it onto paper and into music. If at least one person can relate or take something away with them after hearing my music then I have done my job."
