Themes of Personal Freedom meet Electronic Savvy to create a smart lounge sound that delivers both a strong message and an undeniable groove. 15 MP3 Songs ELECTRONIC: Ambient, ELECTRONIC: Down Tempo Details: Artist: the Green Style: Chillout Hometown: San Antonio, TX The Green was formed in 2006 by producer and Saving Dawn guitarist Carlos Santiago in San Antonio, Texas. With an arsenal of beats, and a message to deliver, Carlos united with vocalist/key player Anne Noel of Seattle and completed work on the first Green album titled "Emancipation". Released on July 25th, 2006, the album features 15 original songs, including 2005 Indie Song of the Year Nominee "The Kyoto Treaty". With critics raving about thier debut album, and the vocal performance of Anne Noel drawing wide acclaim, the Green added two of Santiago's Saving Dawn bandmates, percussionist Chris Pantuso and live dub specialist/vocalist Noom Srisunakorn to round out the group. The combination of styles brought to the table by each member has created an explosion of sound that hits on all cylanders, with tracks ranging from dubbed-out, chill-out beats, to Ibiza style club anthems, and funky, high energy tracks. The Green delivers an incredible fusion of styles and emotions that works well both as soundtrack and purely as song. the Green is: Carlos Santiago (Guitars/Vocals/Beats/Production) Anne Noel (Vocals/Keys/Beats) Chris Pantuso (Latin Percussion/Beats) Noom Srisunakorn (Video/Vocals/Beats)
