Catherine's Awakening Joanna Wylde Wade Masters has always wanted Catherine. The sight of her sends slow fire burning through him. At night his dreams twist his body with need, stoking his desire beyond control or rational thought. In Wade's eyes, Catherine has always been his woman. But she was too young when he left for war, and when he returned he found her married to his brother. Wade did the right thing. He honored her marriage, and when his brother died he gave Cat protection and a place to live. But now she's leaving. It's too much. It's time for Catherine to wake up and see Wade for who he is-the man who will complete her. She just needs to give him a chance.
