MARIAH CAREY MAY HAVE PAVED THE WAY FOR THE LEAD SINGER OF AERIAL TRIBE... but time and patience have brought this singer/songwriter to where he is now. Patrick Evan (Patrique McMillan) started his career in the music industry in the 90's, landing a gig as a background singer for Mariah Carey. With his talent and a lucky break, Patrick was able to perform live and record with such artists as Michael Bolton, Brian McKnight and C&C Music Factory. After 3 years on the road with Mariah, and a hefty resume, Patrick moved back to his home town of Jacksonville, Florida where he formed the eclectic nouveau soul band, Aerial Tribe.

Amidst a time when the music industry appears to be based on worldly trends and themes, Aerial Tribe's Age Of Aquarius intermix of rock and soul seems to be just what the New World Ordered. Led by singer/songwriter Patrick Evan McMillan (former background singer for Mariah Carey) this four piece band which includes Jared May - bass, Jesse Cruce - guitar, Ryan LeRoy - drums deals mainly with the issues of life, love, and theories within the realm of music. With the help of Jacksonville based producers Bat Sauce (Britt Trayhnam) and Willie Evans Jr. (Niam Jones) Aerial Tribe turns natural talent into a collaboration made in heaven. Baritone vocals that smolder on top of hip-hop grooves turn into rock raging hooks at what seems like the speed of light. Aerial Tribe's mission is always compelling and never condemning. The message is the music and everywhere they play people vibrate with life.
