The long awaited New Sound is in town and COJC Music is bringing it your way with their very own artist who pioneers the label, Alkesha Brown: A New Artist with a New Look and a Fresh New Sound.... Paving the way for others to follow, Alkesha brings musical and vocal stylings that one would not expect to find. This new raw talent is surprisingly gifted and equipped, with a lot to offer her audience. As Alkesha ministers through her music, she is accompanied by her Liturgical dancers, "The COJC Music Dance Troupe" better known as "Company." This team of both male and female dancers are highly professional and very energetic yet poised enough to dance ballet to a ballad, or tap to any traditional favorite as they did to the song: "Goin' Up Yonder" which drew accolades and praise from a recent Martin Luther King Day performance in St. Louis, MO. With her debut project entitled, "Count It All Joy" receiving much recognition and having 3 songs including the title cut in heavy rotation on radio stations across the country, Alkesha has been very busy in the studio and is now releasing her sophomore project, "Yield Not to Temptation" which is due to release June 15, 2003. This project contains a variety of different styles of music including: Present-day Gospel with an Urban Hip-Hop flava, not to observe a couple up of selections that have Gospel Rap. There's something here for everyone because not only will you find a beautiful, melodic ballad, you will also find a Traditional Gospel medley with a smooth jazz and bluesy feel. Born and raised in St. Louis, MO, Alkesha has been around music all of her life. Her father, the Rev. Alfred Brown, pastor's The Church of Jesus Christ where
