My musical background spans a wide range of interests to suit your interests. In my work as a composer my desire is to be a conduit between the spirit healer above and the mind-body-spirit beings of us all by tapping into the source through vibrational tones of music. Being on a spiritual quest myself, needless to say my journey is continually heightened and deepened as I connect with spirit to share healing with people I will never meet - but feel - in this vibrational space. In my work I: - Create music for special moods and intents for health practitioners, therapists, and others - Perform timeless classics live in a wide variety of venues - Teach piano to others who want to bring music into their life I am honored to find the space in between that connects all living things in love. Blessings, Becky. Please contact me at classickeys88@yahooor write me at PO Box 44957, Tacoma, WA 98444. I look forward to speaking with you about your interests in music.
