Details: Bobbi Schram is a singer/songwriter on Vancouver Island, British Columbia. Bobbi's been writing, singing, playing piano and guitar for quite a number of years. Only in the past few years she has been playing for larger audiences. Bobbi decided a couple of years ago to have some songs recorded, and went shopping for a studio. Raincoast Studio in Nanaimo was the one. Recording engineer Jerry Paquette took on the project, and now there is a full length cd with 14 of Bobbi's original songs. Almost 2 years later! Most are on piano, a few on guitar, some have violin, cello, and some percussion. Most are laid back, easy listening songs. The title of the CD is actually a song within it. "Terminal Station", is about a homeless man laying on a bench in the park out front of the main train station in Vancouver. So, sit back and relax, hope you enjoy!
